THE SENIOR CLASS
CENTRAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

Chatham County, North Carolina

This is the first annual of Central High School. It records our days here and shows the beginnings of traditions and spirit for the future. We dedicate it to all those who made Central possible: our parents, our teachers, the students, and the board members of the county and the district.

CLASS PROPHECY

One summer night in 1969 I was resting out on the lawn, with nothing to do but use each star as a crystal ball. I began gazing at them, and imagining what I saw. Suddenly I realized that I was seeing my classmates of '59. What an impressive bunch they have turned out to be:

Wesley Hart is coach of N. C. State's popular basketball team.

Rodney Moore travels back and forth to the moon. He was saying, "Look out, boys, we're going to crash!"

Frances Wright still works at Rose's dime store.

Bobby Beard driving a Ford, and J. B. Oldham in a "Chevy", enter all the races at the Darlington, S. C. speedway.

Joy Belle Covert a famous model in one of New York City's largest clothing stores.

Judy Thames works as a singing nurse in a large hospital!

Nancy Sizemore has finally finished a beautician course, and has set up a shop of her own in the heart of Siler City. (At least some of the girls have curly hair now.)

Larry Miller is president of Miller Heating Co. after working as a janitor for five years.

Jack Hilliard makes a hundred thousand a year as short-stop for the St. Louis Cardinals.

Virginia Pearce is now doing private duty for a young millionaire in the suburban area of New York City.

Frances Oldham is married to Roy, and they make their home in Broadway.

Can you imagine Paul Owen head chef at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City?

Norma Jean Caudle, disguised as a boy, tries to make Wesley's basketball team at State, but hasn't succeeded so far.

Gracie Caviness, who has finished a nursing school, is now busy with her half-dozen children.

Then there are Margaret and Jane Phillips. They leave their husbands home keeping the house and children while they go out flirting.

Norma Jean Clapp works with her husband Lonnie in a large factory.

Billy Murchison is doing acrobatic flying in the world's fastest jet saying, "Boy! this is the life!"

Gen. Larry Councilman, career officer in the U. S. A. F., now has command of Lockland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

Harry Lee Livingstone has just hit the million point with his first record.

Norbert Loflin has just come back from the moon with the honor of being named "Scientist of the Year."

Ethel Jane Tally, dressed in white attire, scurries about in City Hospital built by the well-known contractor-millionaire, Mack Hancock.

Mary Elizabeth Dark is now in Florida where she is a famous artist. She has just finished a portrait of the famous professional football player, Odell Holt, now coaching at the University of Bear Creek.

Joanne Phillips designs children's clothes at Macy's Department store in New York City.

Gerald White still drives a bus for the Greyhound Company.

Wesley Binkley stays busy on a large ship-scouring the decks!

Carl Gaines stands on the corner of Broadway and Fifth in New York City, wolf-whistling at all the blonds and brunettes that pass.

Lula Mae Wicker lives in Washington, D. C. and works for the F. B. I.

Ann Palmer is a nurse working beside her famous husband, a brain surgeon.

J. B. Gilliland has made millions as the successor to Lowell Thomas, Jr., on underdeveloped countries. Brother, he's moving fast.

Barbara Morrison, believed to be the flirtiest secretary in Sanford, is still not married.

Faye Williams has set up a successful beauty salon in New York, and to top that, she has a set ot pretty blond-haired twins!

Marie Beard is (believe it or not) the President's own private plane hostess (It's said that her cute smile got her the job.)

Sue Hefner has gained a few pounds, but is still recognizable. She has no worries about losing her job: her husband owns the factory that she works in.

In the office of the Pepsi-Cola bottling Co. in Sanford, Doris Brewer works. She has borrowed money to buy the plant, so that the drinks will never go out of existance while she lives!

Gaither Crissman Cruises up and down the super highways, passing everything with his supersonic, non-door, open-top Chevy.

Lucille Moody has married and has five kids. She and her husband are now in the process of building a modern three-story house over Bear Creek.

Odis Cockman has recently finished law school and has set up his office in Bonlee. He is offering special price rates to law-breakers of his class of 59.

Betty Lou Wilson's name appears on the huge billboard of Madison Square Garden as the greatest female basketball player in the nation.

Here's a star that isn't coming in too clear. Why, it's Katherine Wilson and Lois Neal's. Their ambition was to become secretaries. Their secretarial work now is keeping the family's budget balanced.

The next star shows J. C. Hart. The army has finally taken him away from his wife and two little girls; but at present, he is expecting a long-distance phone call from home any minute. He's hoping for a boy this time!

Judy Kiser makes a large salary writing for the Greensboro Daily News. She and Hubert are still planning to tie the knot! But when?

Why here's a star that seems to be having trouble. No wonder! I see Patricia Phillips pulling her hair out, because of a mistake in her bookkeeping. "Keep trying, Pat!"

Then I see Jane Caudle. She has married twice, divorced twice; now searching for another victim.

At last I see myself, Rayvon King, wishing that I had paid more attention to my teachers in high school. Oh Well, my mother always said I was hard-headed.

Prophet - Rayvon King

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the forty-nine seniors of Chatham Central High School of the year of our Lord one-thousand, nine-hundred and fifty-nine, being of sound mind and having adequate grades to graduate, do bequeath the following to those whom we are leaving behind:

ARTICLE I

To the Juniors, we leave the hustle and bustle, worries and anxieties, joys and sorrows, inadequacies and fulfillments of the final year of high school.

ARTICLE II

To the Sophomores, we leave the feeling of contentment, that nothing is too difficult, no mountain too high, no star too far to be gained before the senior year.

ARTICLE III

To the Freshmen, we leave the concentration, willingness, and just plain hard work that goes into being a "Freshie" for the first time.

ARTICLE IV

To the future generations of this school, we leave the halls, wide with the scope of learning; the library, intense with the heat of concentration; the gymnasium, still ringing with our joyous cheers; and the knowledge that can be wrested from the experience of patiently trying again and again to gain a desired end.

ARTICLE V

As individuals, we desire to bequeath certain abilities and tangible objects to those who have been left behind to carry on the tradition we have begun:

Item 1 Lucille Moody leaves her position in basketball to Linda Clapp.
Item 2 Margaret Phillips leaves her superlative as "Koolest Kat" to her sister Geneva.
Item 3 Betty Lou Wilson leaves her co-captainship of the basketball team to Marie Tally.
Item 4 Judy Kiser leaves her seat in French to anyone who can pass the subject.
Item 5 Jane Phillips wants to let Peggy Clark be the next "Flirtiest."
Item 6 Katherine Wilson leaves her Beta Club pin to her sister with the hope of getting it back when (and if) Shirley gets one of her own.
Item 7 Nancy Sizemore leaves her wisecracks that show quick thinking to Dennis Willett with the suggestion that he sit on the very back seat.
Item 8 Gracie Caviness leaves her ability to smile and take life as it comes to Susan Hayes.
Item 9 Patricia Phillips leaves her exemption in Bookkeeping to Marlin Stinson.
Item 10 Virginia Pearce leaves her dependability to Sarah Oldham.
Item 11 Lois Neal leaves her "cute" little practice set in Bookkeeping to Gail Phillips, advising her to read the rules before playing the game.
Item 12 Doris Brewer leaves her ability to talk in history and get away with it to Jane King.
Item 13 Sue Hefner leaves her ability to talk and not get away with it to Lanny Jenkins.
Item 14 Judy Thames leaves her habit of singing to herself all the time to Alice King.
Item 15 Ann Palmer leaves her activity in all phases of school affairs to her brother Aubrey.
Item 16 Ethel Jane Tally leaves her chief cheerleader's suit to Susan Hayes.
Item 17 Jane Caudle leaves her long hair to Judy White.
Item 18 Rayvon King leaves his position as Beta Club president to Jo Ann Stinson.
Item 19 Bill Murchison leaves his position as student body president to all candidates - may the best man win!
Item 20 Paul Owen leaves his peacemaking ability to Stockton Wilkins.
Item 21 Norbert Loflin leaves his algebra book to anyone intelligent enough to understand the stuff.
Item 22 Larry Miller leaves his dry humor to Gene Barber.
Item 23 Rodney Moore leaves his liking of scientific subjects to his sister Brenda.
Item 24 Larry Councilman leaves his inability to do algebra and ability to be bald at 18 to Robert Gaines.
Item 25 Odis Cockmon leaves his position as sportswriter for the school paper to anyone talented enough to try it.
Item 26 Frances Wright leaves her cheerleader's place to her brother Carl.
Item 27 Bobby Beard leaves his infectious grin to Ritchie Nall.
Item 28 J. C. Hart leaves his school bus to his sister Elizabeth.
Item 29 Harry Lee Livingston leaves his ability to say the least in the most words to Gary Moses Item 30 Norma Jean Caudle leaves her superlative as most courteous to Joyce Vaughn.
Item 31 Wesley Hart leaves his high scoring in basketball to Samuel Cheek.
Item 32 J. B. Gilliland leaves his dancing ability to Clarence McKeithan.
Item 33 Odell Holt leaves his inability to get his art work for the paper in before the deadline to Jimmy Elkins.
Item 34 Jack Hilliard leaves his baseball ability to Dickie Joyce.
Item 35 Lula Mae Wicker leaves her neatness to Brenda Gaines.
Item 36 Barbara Morrison leaves her position as Best Personality to Judy White.
Item 37 Marie Beard leaves her pleasant smile to Linda Hart.
Item 38 Frances Oldham leaves her naturally curly black hair to Betty Darnell.
Item 39 Mack Hancock leaves his ability to make good in shop to Richard Moore.
Item 40 Gerald White leaves his ability to "just get by" with little or no studying to Charlie Elkins.
Item 41 J. B. Oldham leaves his wise cracks to Alex Rose.
Item 42 Gaither Crissman leaves his liking for Chevrolets to his brother Lynn.
Item 43 Elizabeth Dark leaves her eyes of great depths to Lydia Scott.
Item 44 Joy Belle Covert leaves her Valentine's Day queenship to Sandra Wicker.
Item 45 Faye Williams leaves her willingness to work cheerfully to Alice King.
Item 46 Wesley Binkley leaves his determination to get a diploma to his brother Johnny.
Item 47 Joanne Phillips leaves her position as secretary of 12-A to Linda Wilkie.
Item 48 Norma Jean Clapp leaves her "liking" for bookkeeping to Barbara Robinson.
Item 49 Carl Gaines leaves his ability to charm the girls to Jerry Wilson.

Signed, sealed, published and declared to be the Last Will and Testament of the Seniors of 1959.

Our boys won a "few" games!

Back-catcher?? Of Course...

Could be we lost the game.

This must have been a marble cake.

Its dim light shines forth to tempt us into honored paths.

Margaret,
You have been a wonderful friend to me the many years
we have been school together
I hope it will stay that way.

Jane

Margaret, after being in school with you this year, I have become very fond of you. I sure do appreciate you being my campaign manager for president this year, although we didn't win. I wish you the best of luck, during the years to come. May prosperity always be with you in the years to come, and may luck swing along side of you.

a classmate who admires you,

Jerry Wilson

Margaret, I hope that the best of everything in life comes your way. I will always remember you as a dear, sweet friend.

real sweet girl.
Love ya,
Sandra P.

Margaret,
We never forget as long as I live how much fun we have had together. Remember the time we went to Durham, will never forget that will we?
Margaret you not only my sweet niece but also a great friend. I know I wouldn't had ever had a good time at school if you were not around. you have helped me in so many different ways. Best wishes always in your future life and may God bless you. "Best of luck"

Love always

Margaret,

Best of luck to one of the sweetest girls I have ever known. I will never forget you and hope you won't forget me either. It has been nice being in history with you this year although we haven't did much studying (just talking) you know? Margaret don't ever forget me and all the good times we have had together at Galdston and Central. I hope you will finish next year and don't forget to send me a invation next year so I will come if you don't I won't come. Well! Margaret I hope you find that certain someone also. And I know you wish I would. "May God Bless You"

Love you!
Jayne E. Phillips Sr.
